"Behold, I send My messenger before Your Face, who shall prepare Your way..." (Matthew 11:10)

Volume 17, Issue 11 St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church, Las Vegas, NV

December 2019

From Father
John

"Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is He Who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East, and have come to worship Him.'" (Matthew 2:1-2)

Beloved in Christ:

In the Gospel of Matthew we learn about the Magi – three scholarly foreigners – who traveled to visit our Lord Jesus Christ after His Nativity in the flesh, bearing gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. When the evil King Herod learned this he was troubled, and assembling the leading clerics of Jerusalem, he questioned them as to where the Christ was to be born. Then Herod summoned the Wise Men secretly and found out from them the precise time the star had emerged. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him bring me word, that I too may come and worship him." (Matthew 2:8)

As directed by King Herod, the Magi went on their way, continuing to follow the star until it stopped over the area where the Christ-child laid. Upon arriving at the house, they knelt down and worshiped Him, and offered Him their treasures. Having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, as he planned to kill Jesus in preserving his earthly kingship, the Wise Men returned to their home by an alternative route.

Our Lord teaches us: "Your eye is the lamp of your body; when your eye is sound, your whole body is full of light; but when it is not sound, your body is full of darkness." (Luke 11:34) Although the star – which St. John Chrysostom likens to a power highly endowed with reason, much like the pillar of the cloud that led the ancient Israelites in the desert – shone brightly before the Wise Men, it was obscured by the wicked king and religious leaders who feared losing their authority: Blinded by the lust for power and lack of faith, their eyes were kept from seeing the star – that during the day was even brighter than the beams of the sun – and thus they remained blinded by the darkness of their souls. Conversely, the gentile Magi, who had not been exposed to the prophecies foretelling of the star of Christ (Malachi 4:2, Isaiah, 59:19) were led to the Christ-child because the eyes of their souls were full of spiritual light: This is why they were not only driven to find and worship Him, but also to offer Him their finest treasures with gratitude.

A Monk of the Eastern Church offers a helpful observation for all of us, especially during this Holy Advent Season: "The Magi followed the light which was given to them faithfully: Being obedient to this light, they were led by it to the Child. If I try to be faithful to the full measure of light that God has given me, if I have the courage to leave all to follow the star, if I decide to be true and obedient to my conscience (whatever may happen), and ready to 'bear witness to the Light' (John 1:7) . . . the divine light will not fail, despite my ignorance, to lead me – not in any abstract way, but through all the concrete circumstances of life, and whenever it is needed – right up to the Child in Whom I have placed all my hope." (The Year of Grace of the Lord)

Our faith in and love for our Lord Jesus, Who was Incarnate for our salvation, must be the driving force in our day-to-day life, and in every circumstance we face: When the eyes of our souls are focused on Christ, in Whose image we are made, He will always direct our paths – as He did with the Magi – and we will have an overwhelming desire to serve Him and His Church and one another as joyful Stewards. But when we are clouded by our selfish pursuits, our passions, our lack of repentance and our lack of love . . . how great will be the darkness of our souls and lives. May the Light of the Christ-child enlighten and imbue us with renewed faith, hope and love – and grant us a greater commitment as Stewards and Visionaries of our God-established Church – as we prepare to celebrate His Holy Nativity and embark on the New Year of the Lord 2020.

With love in Christ,

Father John

Parish Council Report

Happy Thanksgiving. We wish everyone a Blessed Holiday Season.

We just celebrated the 60th Anniversary of our Church, our Diamond Jubilee, over the weekend of November 9 and 10. Joining us in our celebration was His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos, and our former priests, His Excellency, Metropolitan Ilia (who was recently elevated), and Father Matthew and Presvytera Annie Swehla. It was a great weekend with a lot of good feelings of togetherness and fellowship. People really came together to make it a truly blessed celebration. The Grand Gala Celebration on Saturday evening was absolutely fantastic, with great company, great food and great music. Also, the Silent Auction was a huge hit. During the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy the next day, there were a couple of tremendous surprises. Marilyn Flangas was awarded the Medal of St. Paul, the highest honor the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America bestows on a Parishioner. Marilyn and the entire congregation were completely unaware that she was going to receive the Medal. In another huge surprise, Father John was elevated to the rank of Offikion of Protopresbyter, which allows him to stand with the senior clergy of the Metropolis. It is the highest rank for married Clergy. Father John and the entire congregation were also completely unaware that he was going to be elevated. Congratulations to both. The Champagne Brunch after the Liturgy was fantastic, again with a lot of good feelings of togetherness and fellowship. We would like to thank the many people who gave of their time, talents and treasures to make the entire weekend a remarkable and memorable time. Specifically, we would like to thank Cheryl Pandelis, Nitsa Filios, Susan Stamis, Geri Kypreos, Kiki Mavrantonis, Benita Beeman and the Ladies Philoptochos Society.

In conjunction with the 60th Anniversary, two women put together a $300,000 plan to retire the Mortgage on the Church. We are happy to announce that their efforts were successful and the Mortgage was paid off in full just prior to "Our Diamond Jubilee" weekend. It was a mammoth undertaking, and these two ladies through sheer determination and force of personality made it happen. We would like to thank Cheryl Pandelis and Nitsa Filios for their extraordinary efforts in making the payoff of the Mortgage a reality. We would also like to thank the many individuals who contributed their treasures to this worthy cause. This was a wonderful venture and shows what we can all do when we work together and put forth the energy.

In celebrating our 60th Anniversary, it is important to recognize that over sixty years ago, several Greek Orthodox families who were living here in Las Vegas wanted to make a life here, and knew well the importance of having a Church in making any type of life. Their vision to establish a Greek Orthodox Church gave us the foundation for where we are today. Over the years, the original vision of these founding Parishioners has grown and led to new visions. Through the generous contributions and visions of several families and many Parish members, we have progressed significantly over the years, and now enjoy the ability to worship together and join in fellowship in our beautiful Church, facilities and grounds. It is up to each of us to continue to grow the vision and realize new visions to ensure the future of our Church. As part of continuing and developing new visions, we are going to have a Town Hall Parish Vision Meeting in a couple months to get everyone's input on where we want to be as we move toward the future. This will be an extremely important meeting, and allow us obtain valuable input from everyone who has a stake in the future of the Church to put together a clear and coherent vision harmonious with our Faith.

In addition to building on the vision, we cannot over emphasize the importance of Stewardship and we ask that everyone step up and contribute. It is so important to the future of our Church. Please pray and look into your hearts about Stewardship, understanding that it is our way of "giving back" to God with gratitude for the all the gifts he has given us. We are getting better with Stewardship, but we have a long way to go. We have a Stewardship All-Stars Luncheon scheduled for Sunday, December 15, immediately following Liturgy. We encourage everyone to attend and learn about Stewardship and honor some of our more outstanding Stewards who have given so much of their time, talents and treasures.

We also have Elections for Parish Council on Sunday, December 15. These elections are very important to the leadership and administration of our Church. There are six seats open for election and the candidates are: Stephen Carabas, Gus Flangas, Aristotelis ("Telly") Eliades, John Matsis, Stacy Mavrantonis, Alexander Mavros, Peter Papas, Robert Paisios Pursell, and Joy Wolfenbarger. Please vote and ensure that your voice is heard.

In closing, we want to again thank the various Church ministries and organizations, and the many individuals for all the work they do and have done to help us secure the future of the Church. It clearly takes a lot of work from the entire community to maintain our Church. Please step forward whenever you can and pitch in. Thank you and may God Bless.

In Christ,

Philoptochos News

My Dearest Sisters of Philoptochos and our St. John the Baptist Community,

The Holy Nativity Season is upon us! As we prepare for Christmas, let us each remember to uplift those who are struggling, those who are forgotten and those who have less. We remember them with actions of giving and love in imitation of our God

Who sent His Son as the greatest gift to the world to save each of us. This is the true meaning of Christmas.

The month of November was very busy for Philoptochos! On November 3, we celebrated the Patron Saints of Philoptochos, Ss. Cosmas and Damianos. We had a collection for the Ecumenical Patriarchate followed by a beautiful Fellowship hosted by Rahel Kiflezgi. Special thanks to Rahel, Jennifer Santamaria and all the wonderful Philoptochos ladies who assisted with serving.

On November 9 and 10 our Parish celebrated its 60th Anniversary – “The Diamond Jubilee.” Under the leadership of Chairwomen Cheryl Pandelis and Nitsa Filios, along with their talented team – Kiki Mavrantonis, Geri Kypreos, Susan Stamis and the Ladies Philoptochos – our community came together: The $300,000 one-year plan was a success and, thank God, we are now mortgage free! Saturday evening was truly magnificent, with a beautiful dinner, music and dancing. The silent auction was not only a success but also quite enjoyable; many thanks to Bernadette Anthony, Vicky Palivos and Dora Hart for chairing. The Pictorial History of St. John the Baptist Church, put together by the Hellenic Historical Society, was phenomenal and helped parishioners become familiar with the decades-long history of our community. Sunday’s Champagne Brunch was beautifully prepared. We were blessed to have His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco, His Excellency Metropolitan Ilia Katre, and Father Matthew and Presvytera Annie Swehla with us throughout the weekend. God truly blessed us and we are so grateful to Him first and foremost!

On November 16, we had our pastry baking day. Thank you to our incredible team that came out to bake our Christmas pastries! A special thank you to our lead bakers, Eleni Kakavulias, Kiki Mavrantonis and Marika Lamancusa. The pastries came out delicious! We cannot forget the wonderful men who were there to assist with baking, lifting and whatever else was asked of them. We had over 30 beautiful ladies that worked tirelessly with incredible enthusiasm. I am grateful to all of you! Now it’s time to sell all the pastries!

On November 23, we had our pastry packing day. Thank you to our wonderful Chairwomen, Amanda and Tamara Flangas, and for everyone that came out to help pack – especially the parents and dancers of our Folk Dance ministry. The packaged boxes look beautiful and very festive.

On November 24, we had our Autumn Bake sale which was a huge success. Thank you to our Chairwoman Rahel Kiflezgi and all those who baked for the special occasion. We also had our Christmas Tree sale on November 24 chaired by our lovely Christina and Adrienne Snow. The trees were decorated beautifully by our Philoptochos women.

Our Community Christmas Card is now on sale. Please see Andrea Takas or Tami Stefanatos on Sundays to participate, or fill out the form on Page 8 and return with payment to the Church Office before the deadline of Sunday, December 8.

Youth and Family Ministries

Church School

Blessed Nativity Fast! I want to wish you a wonderful Advent and Christmas!

Congratulations on all who were involved in the 60th Anniversary Celebration of our Church. The events were lovely and so many came together to make it a weekend to remember.

I am sure all of us are excited about the many Parish activities going on. This is a perfect time to get involved and meet great people and make lifelong friends. We have so many ministries for all ages, so please get your kids involved: Along with Church School, OFF, GOYA, Youth Choir, Folk Dance and Greek Language are all different ministries that your children can join so they can learn more about our Faith and have fun while doing it.

We are still accepting registrations, so please get those in to me after Sunday Liturgy, or to Karen during the week. We are continuing our theme of "The Creed," and the students are learning to recite it, and are exploring its deep theological meaning. The Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed is a cornerstone of our Orthodox Christian identity.

Next month there will be two Family Worship Sundays (no Church School):

Sunday, January 5: Eve of Theophany – Divine Liturgy and the Great Blessing of Water.

Sunday, January 12: Cutting of the Community Vasilopita (St. Basil Bread).

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns!

In Christ, Eileen Koutsulis, Church School Director (702) 521-6516 or vivaleenie@cox.net

Merry Christmas to all!

Our annual Christmas Caroling is scheduled to take place on December 6 and 7. We would like to invite all members of the community, both young and old, to participate in this annual event. We will be singing both Greek and English Christmas carols and traveling across the Las Vegas Valley spreading cheer. Please consider inviting us to your home or business to experience the carols. A sign-up sheet is in this issue of The Desert Messenger (see Page 14), or contact Karen at the Church Office.

Our Soup Fellowship is also scheduled for Sunday, December 8. It is the perfect time to warm up with some delicious Lenten soup! Please join us.

Finally, our dancers have been very busy practicing their dance suites in preparation for FDF! We look forward to sharing our hard work with everyone at our annual Preview Luncheon, to be held on Sunday, February 9, 2020. Also, mark your calendars for our Glendi with LIVE GREEK MUSIC on Saturday, February 8, 2020. ## GOYA ~ For Teenagers

Dear GOYANs . . . Merry Christmas!

This month we will be gathering on Thursday night, December 5 at 5:30 pm for our annual Christmas Tree Decorating Party! We need your help assembling, decorating and lighting our beautiful Parish tree that will be on display in Panos Hall until our Parish Name Day Luncheon celebration on Sunday, January 12. We will have some refreshments and hot chocolate, along with Christmas Carols and a spiritual discussion.

Secondly, we will be having the opportunity to help those less fortunate than us. On Friday, December 13 at 5:00 pm we will go to the Las Vegas Rescue Mission and participate in the effort to wrap hundreds of donated toys for young children of those families suffering from the effects of homelessness. These gifts will be distributed the following day at a huge party for hundreds of youth coming from the streets of Las Vegas at the Rescue Mission. Our teens will be part of the final effort to prepare the gifts they will receive.

Finally, please mark down Friday, December 27 at 6:00 pm for our annual GOYA Christmas Party at the home of Steve, June, and Julianna Likourinou! Please bring your favorite Christmas dish to share and RSVP with Father Seraphim or June for directions.

Please come out for all of our wonderful events, and have a blessed Feast of our Lord's Birth!

With Love in Christ, June Likourinou and Kouli Pouridis, GOYA Advisors

Orthodox Family Fellowship

Dear Families of OFF: Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

“An angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, ‘Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit; she will bear a son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.’ All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: ‘Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel’ (which means, God with us).
(Matthew 1:20-23)

From Father Seraphim

Every year on December 12, the Orthodox Church celebrates the Feast Day of St. Spyridon of Trymithous. This humble man and bishop of the Church was born toward the end of the third century on the island of Cyprus. It is recorded that he was a shepherd by trade, and that he had a wife and children. He used all his substance for the needs of his neighbors and the homeless and was exceptionally generous and kind. Because of this, the Lord rewarded him with the gift of working miracles. After the repose of his wife and during the reign of Constantine the Great, he was ordained as a bishop because of his exemplary life and great virtue. Even with the dignity of the Archpriesthood, the saint did not change his humble and unassuming manner of life as is evidenced by the simple shepherd's cap he had worn since his days of tending sheep, and continued to wear as a hierarch.

According to the witness of Church historians, St. Spyridon participated in the sessions of the First Ecumenical Council convened in Nicaea in the year 325. At the Council, the saint famously entered into a dispute with a Greek philosopher, who was defending the Arian heresy (that Jesus Christ was a creature, and not equal to God the Father). St. Spyridon showed everyone the impotence of human logic compared to Divine Wisdom: "Listen philosopher, we believe that the Almighty God out of nothing created by His Word and His Spirit both heaven and earth, the world both visible and invisible. The Word is the Son of God, Who came down upon the earth on account of our sins; He was born of a Virgin, He lived among mankind, and suffered and died for our salvation, and then He arose, having redeemed by His sufferings our sins, and He resurrected with Himself the human race. We believe, that He is Equal-in-Dignity with the Father, and we believe this without any sly rationalizations, since it is impossible to grasp this mystery by human reason." At this same council, St. Spyridon also explained the Oneness within the Holy Trinity: He took in his hand a brick and for an instant fire emerged from it upwards, water flowed downwards, and in his hand remained the dust, showing forth that although God is three in persons, He is one in nature.

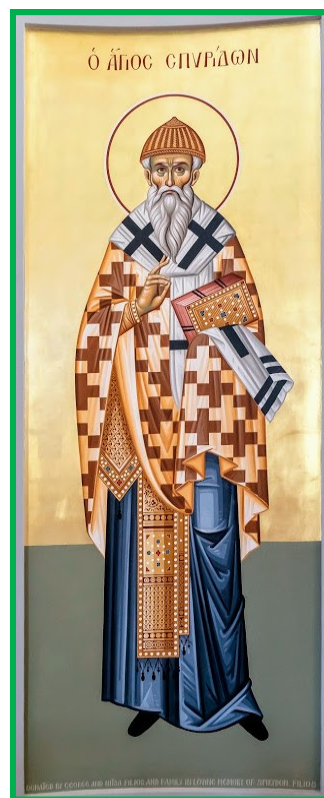

St. Spyridon was also renowned for the great love he showed to his flock. Through his prayer, drought was replaced by abundant rains, and likewise incessant rains were replaced by fair weather. One time he went into Church for the Divine Liturgy, and having said "Peace be unto all," both he and his deacon heard in reply from above a multitude of voices, proclaiming: "And with your spirit." To each petition of the litanies, this invisible choir sang "Lord, have mercy." Attracted by the Church singing, people from nearby came inside. When they entered into the Church, however, they saw no one besides the bishop and several altar servers.

Another historical detail is that the saint always left open the entrance to his supply-room, where each could take as much as was needed, and afterward make a return however they wished. Once, robbers planned to steal his sheep, and in the deep of night they broke into the sheepfold, but by some invisible power they found themselves tied up. In the morning the saint went to his pen, and seeing the tied-up robbers, he untied them and told them to leave their life of theft and earn a livelihood by respectable work. Then, he gave them each a sheep and sent them off. St. Spyridon lived his earthly life in righteousness and in prayer he gave up his soul to the Lord in 348. His incorrupt relics are treasured on the island of Corfu in a Church dedicated to him.

During this Holy Season of our Lord's Nativity, may we be inspired by the simple and loving example of St. Spyridon to be both generous and humble. May we be like those first shepherds (even more, the shepherd-bishop whose body has not decayed and slippers still wear out from use!), as we once again gather around the humble Lord in the manger, listening to the angels singing, "Glory to God in the Highest and on earth, peace goodwill toward men!"

With Love in Christ,

Father Seraphim

Church Photo Directory

Much has changed in the life of St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church in the last 10 years. As our last Church Photo Directory was published in 2009, we have embarked on the effort to produce a more updated face of our Parish with the publication of a new Photo Directory in the coming year.

With the full support of this endeavor by our Priests and Parish Council, Bill and Erin Bruninga are taking family and individual photos of our Parish Stewards and Friends on Sundays after Divine Liturgy in Panos Hall. Please look to the Weekly Bulletin and emails for more details on your scheduled photography sittings. The sessions will only take five minutes of your time and there is no charge to have your photo taken for our Directory.

Orthodox Bookstore

This month the Bookstore is celebrating the Orthodox Church's newest saint: Saint Joseph the Hesychast (1897-1959). We are featuring two books that will help us get to know him better! St. Joseph was an unsurpassed teacher of noetic prayer. This means that like his forbearers in monasticism – St. Nicodemus the Hagiorite, St. Seraphim of Sarov, and St. Gregory Palamas – he said unceasingly the Jesus Prayer (“Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, Have Mercy on me”). He also taught others to do so, along with all the spiritual discipline needed to lead a life of solitude, vigil, and uninterrupted devotion to God. With his small brotherhood – Elder Ephraim of Philotheou, Elder Charalambos of Dionysiou, Elder Joseph of Vatopedi, Elder Arsenios Spileotis the Hesychast, and his disciple Elder Ephraim of Katunakia – he participated in the resurgence of the genuine ascetic and Orthodox spiritual life in many monasteries on the Holy Mountain in the 20th Century. His disciples took St. Joseph's legacy to the Holy Athonite Monasteries of Philotheou, Dionysiou, Vatopaidi, Karakalou, Xeropotamou, Konstamonitou as well as many other monasteries under their guidance. Many sought the spiritual help and wisdom of St. Joseph while he was living on Mt. Athos, and after his repose, the saint's disciples helped repopulate many dilapidated or almost extinct monasteries in the past sixty years.

My Elder Joseph the Hesychast is written by one of the disciples of St. Joseph, Elder Ephraim of St. Anthony's Monastery in Arizona. This book is the biography of his physical life and his spiritual life. Joseph the Hesychast (one who lives in near absolute silence and prayer) was a monk and elder on Mount Athos. He was the spiritual father of Elder Ephraim, Gerondissa Makrina Vassopoulou of blessed memory, as well as many others. Here is a short excerpt where Elder Ephraim is speaking to his Geronda (St. Joseph):

Once when Geronda and I were outside with our prayer-ropes and he was telling me about prayer and his experiences of looking after monks in their old age. I could smell lilies and roses, even though we only had holly-oak trees there. I was sniffing intently, and he said to me, “Why are you doing that?” “Geronda, I smell lilies and roses.” “Why don’t you go over to my door?” So I went over to his door and smelled his cell. That heavenly fragrance was so strong that it stuck to my beard and my clothes. Then he explained to me, “It is from prayer. Don’t you understand? The name of Christ is fragrance.”

Monastic Wisdom, The Letters of Elder Joseph the Hesychast is a collection of letters that the saint wrote to his spiritual children, which included monks, nuns, priests and laypeople. Here is a short excerpt from one of his letters:

“Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me.” In the beginning, with the lips and the nous (mind); later, with the nous and the heart. And they will quickly find the path of life, the door of paradise, or rather, the prayer itself, when said with desire, will become like a paradise within them . . . Therefore, whoever wants to, let him taste this honey, and it will become a fountain of joy and happiness within him . . .

Elder Ephraim came to America and has built eighteen monasteries in the United States and Canada. These monasteries are flourishing by the grace of God and the support of our Archdiocese and Patriarchate. Many pilgrims from around the world come to receive the elder's blessing.

Until next month, God willing, Mary Pursell and the Bookstore Team

Through our 2020 Stewardship Pledge, let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God! Please return your 2020 Pledge Card to Church on Sundays, December 8 or 15. Thank You!

Stewardship and Community Outreach

Glory be to God for all things! By God's Grace our Parish celebrated its 60th Anniversary last month. This gala event exuded a great sense of love and unity in our Parish and showed what we can accomplish when we work together for His Glory.

For the celebration of our 60th Anniversary, we were blessed with the presence of our spiritual leader, Metropolitan Gerasimos, our former beloved Parish Priests, Metropolitan Ilia, and Father Matthew and Presvytera Annie. We were further blessed, that through the heartfelt efforts of Cheryl Pandelis and Nitsa Filios on the $300K One Year Plan Campaign, and the generous donations of many Stewards, the mortgage debt was retired. Looking toward the future, be sure to watch for details regarding the 20/20 Vision Town Hall Meeting, which will take place in early Lent next year. The intent of the Parish-wide meeting is to create a vision for where we want to be in 10 years at the Platinum Jubilee in 2029.

The month of December marks an even greater blessing to our Parish members and Christians across the globe. That blessing was announced by the Archangel Gabriel "to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. . . the angel said to her, 'Rejoice, highly favored one, the Lord is with you, blessed are you among women.'" (Luke 1:26-28) Why was Mary blessed among women? Because, as the Archangel Gabriel further told her, "you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son and shall call His name Jesus." (Luke 1:30-31) The coming of the Son of God in the flesh is a miraculous event for all of humanity and, moreover, provides us with a path back to the Father.

The Nativity Icon is a wondrous depiction of the Birth of Jesus and contains many theological truths. In the upper right corner we have the shepherds who were told by the angel of the "good tidings of great joy." (Luke 2:10) The Magi are shown to the left, being guided by the star, bringing Him gold, frankincense, and myrrh. (Matthew 2:11) The significance of these gifts is: "Gold for the King of ages. Frankincense is for the God of all. Myrrh is offered to the immortal One, Who shall be three days dead." (Compline of the Nativity)

The yawning cave in the center of the icon symbolizes hades and many of the elements prefigure Our Lord's Passion. Jesus is wrapped in swaddling clothes in a manger, which resembles a sepulcher. The swaddling clothes are depicted as burial wrappings, thus showing one purpose of His coming in the flesh was to endure death: By His Death he would trample down death, destroying the last stranglehold of the devil on humanity.

Inside the cave we see a donkey and an ox, which is a reference to Isaiah 1:3: "The ox knows its owner and the ass its master's crib; but Israel does not know, My people do not understand." The ox represents the Jews and the donkey the pagans; both are depicted together to show Christ has come to save all people. The women in the lower right hand corner are midwives who display that the Son of God was truly born as a human, refuting the heresy that He merely appeared to be human.

In the bottom left corner we see a pondering St. Joseph next to a figure who tempts him to question whose Child this is. This figure represents the devil, who never rests from his efforts to destroy us. Although Joseph knew he was not the biological father, an angel revealed to him in a dream that he should "take to you Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit." (Matt 1:20) An interesting feature of this icon is that the Virgin Mary is not looking at the Christ-child, but rather toward St. Joseph: She is concerned about him and interceding for him.

This holy icon reveals to us that we must always be mindful of the incredible gift bestowed upon the world with our Lord's Nativity. We, in turn, must honor our Lord's gift of salvation by taking care of one another and using the blessings of our time, talents and treasures to His glory. Amen.

In Christ, The Stewardship and Community Outreach Committee

The Way of the Lord

When evil assaults you, you must be agile and turn at once to the good. Turn, transform and transfigure every evil into good. . . . True transformation is made by divine grace. For this to happen, a person must have given himself to Christ with all his soul and with all his heart. (Mark 12:30)

Remember Stephen the first martyr. He was possessed by God and, even while he was being persecuted and stoned, he prayed for his persecutors, saying, “Lord, do not count this sin against them.” (Acts 7:60) Why did Saint Stephen behave in this way? Quite simply, because he could behave no differently. He was a captive of good. Do you think that it is easy to have a hailstorm of stones thrown at you? Try having one stone thrown at you! All very well, but when the stone hits you, you’ll start to shout and swear. That shows that we are overtaken by the evil spirit. And in this situation, how can Christ come and where can he find a place to remain within us? Every space within us is occupied. But as soon as we enter into Christ, everything changes. If you are a thief, you stop stealing; if you are a murderer, you stop murdering; if you are resentful, you cease to think with malice. . . . Everything ceases. Sin ceases and Christ lives in you. It is what Saint Paul said: “It is no longer I who live; Christ lives in me.” (Galatians 2:20)

(St. Porphyrios, Wounded by Love)
